Missionaries Tim and Bunny Cain work with the Puinave people in the remote jungles of South America. After seven years of language and cultural study, spiritual harvest comes as the Puinave respond to the Gospel. A small airplane piloted by Paul Dye and Steve Estelle constitute the Cains' link to civilization. Suddenly their work is disrupted as the armed guerrillas take the Cains hostage and force them to call in the Mission plane on the pretense of needing medical help. Paul and Steve fly into the trap. The missionaries cry, "Why would God allow this?"
