

World's Living Religions

For the final exam . . .

Monday, 10 a.m. Tullis Room (Commons, first floor, back by restrooms)

The exam will be basically oral with most of it done as a group discussion.

For that exam, be prepared to:

1. Explain in two or three points which religion you would choose to embrace if Christianity were no longer an option.
2. Talk about some of the key ideas (specific details as well as big picture ideas) which have intrigued you from this course and which seem to be sticking in your mind.
3. Mention one in-class presentation (guest lecturer or video) that you found the most helpful.

To make our time as profitable as possible (and to give me a basis on which to judge your participation in our time together), bring a written outline or summary of material relating to both of these issues. This sheet will be handed in and will be used in determining your final exam grade.
