

Redeem the Time

434

Albert B Simpson, 1843-1919

Melody by Margaret M. Simpson, 1876-1958

1. Re - deem the time, for the days are e - vil! It rings o'er the
 2. Re - deem the time, for the days are sol - emn, And the cri - sis
 3. Re - deem the time, for the Lord is work - ing By His might - y
 4. Re - deem the time, let us send the gos - pel To the farth - est earth with its notes sub - lime; 'Tis the voice of God to His slum - bering peo - ple;

 hour of the world is near; The mys - tic scroll is un - fold - ing swift - ly, power in ev - ery land; Let us fol - low Him as He leads His ser - vants bounds of the hu - man race; O - ver all the world let us spread the ti - dings,

REFRAIN

Re - deem, re - deem the time;
 The Lord will soon be here. Re - deem the time, for the days are e - vil!
 With His al - might - y hand.
 While lasts our day of grace.

Let it ring through the world with its notes sub - lime; The shad - ows are length - ening, the night is near, Re - deem, re - deem the time.