Additional Information

The Cross-Cultural Orientation (CCO) weekend events are designed to assess, train, and orient those who are interested in cross-cultural ministry in and through the Church of the Nazarene. This event is required for anyone interested in serving for 90 days or longer, but we encourage all volunteers to attend. Attendance at a CCO is also required for Global Missionary Candidates as one of their first steps of development.

Assessment – Different methods are used to assess the participants for cross-cultural ministry including: personality profiles, spiritual gifts assessment, conflict management indicator, as well as, observing the interaction of participants during group activities.

Training – Several tools are used in training, including: video, Power Point, lecture, and group activities. Each activity is designed to teach as well as stimulate a desire for further study regarding the issues covered.

Orientation – The focus of the weekend is to equip each participant with information on the necessary steps needed to get actively involved in hands-on missions. Orientation is given on the overall structure of the Church of the Nazarene with a focus on the opportunities that are available, both short-term and long-term. Topics such as accountability, the flow of support funds, and the resources available to volunteers are covered. A personal interview is given for each participant who would like to share what God is doing in their lives and where He is leading them.

Housing & Meals – In order to keep the cost to a minimum, each participant may choose where they are going to stay and where they would like to eat. We would encourage participants to stay with friends in the area or at a hotel nearby. On-site food service is usually available through each of our colleges and universities, as well as local restaurants. If you have questions about hotel accommodations, please contact us at WMVolunteer@nazarene.org

Transportation – World Mission is unable to offer shuttle services; therefore, the best option for participants would be to either rent a car (if you plan to fly) or to make arrangements with friends or family in the area. All participants will need to be responsible for daily transportation to and from the event.

Dress – Dress is casual

Items to bring – Writing utensil and an openness to learn.
