

My Faith Story Work Sheet

This testimony writing exercise will help you be ready to tell your story to anyone who asks. Your story is important because:

- 1. Your friends are interested in you and your life
- 2. Your friends can relate to your story
- 3. People cannot argue with the fact that your life has been changed

Side A

(See side B if you became a Christian at an early age.)

A attention-getting opening sentence:

Before I received Christ I lived and thought this way:

How I received Christ:

What caused you to begin considering God/Christ as a solution to your needs?

What finally motivated you to actually come to God for forgiveness and to accept Christ as Lord?

Specifically, how did you receive Christ?

After I received Christ, these changes took place:

Be honest about any ups and downs along the way

Side B

(For those who became Christians at an early age; use side A if you became a believer as an adolescent or young adult)

A attention-getting opening sentence:

My background and early Christian experience:

Life between my early experience and when I yielded my life to Christ:

How I yielded my life to Christ (be specific)

Why I still follow Jesus:
