On which troublesome doctrinal question, Biblical interpretation point or ethical consideration would you like to hear a specific response in class this semester?

Your "potential” answer
(Not necessary, but knowing your own thinking will help me to respond better)