

Study Guide 1

Nazarene Missions

Material from the readings and from classroom lectures and discussions

1. Be able to name three of the great missionary pioneers of the 19th century, the country or area where they served and something about their particular contribution to the missionary enterprise.
2. Be able to describe the general missions climate of the period in which the Church of the Nazarene was born. Was this new denomination influenced by anything in that climate?
3. Be able to finish P. F. Bresee's statement: "We are debtors . . ."
4. Be able to give a brief biographical sketches of H. F. Reynolds and Susan Fitkin, including their contributions to Nazarene missions (see <http://home.snu.edu/~hculbert/fitkin.htm>)
5. Know to which group both H. F. Reynolds and Susan Fitkin belonged before that group merged with others to form the national denomination, the Church of the Nazarene.
6. Be able to describe the "system" the Church of the Nazarene uses to finance its missionary work.
7. Know what key decision was made in the 1920s regarding administrative oversight by the General Superintendents.
8. Know which General Assembly Franklin Cook has called "one of the most forward-looking" ones for the Church of the Nazarene.
9. Know in which decade the following took place: Development of the General Board, short-term mission trips, internationalization of Nazarene church government.
10. Be able to identify the following:

Alabaster
C. G. Anderson
Samuel Bhujabal
Alfredo Del Rosso
John Diaz
Leslie Gay
General Budget

Jerald Johnson
C. Warren Jones
J.G. Morrison
Harmon Schmelzenbach
Mary Scott
NMI

NWMS
Roger Winans
Self-theologizing
Ten Percent giving
Work and Witness
World Evangelism Fund

11. Be able to describe an insight or reflective thought you've had from one of the special guests we've had come to our class.

<http://home.snu.edu/~hculbert/>

